Foods of Super Bowl LX Webquest

Use this infographic to answer the questions in the chart.

What two foods are most commonly served at Super Bowl parties?	Pizza and Chicken Wings
What are the two biggest grilling weekends of the year?	Memorial Day and Fourth Of JULY… AMERICA!
The Super Bowl is the second largest food "holiday" in the U.S. What is the largest?	Thanksgiving
How many pounds of potato chips will be eaten in the U.S. on Super Bowl Sunday?	11.2 Million pounds
What is a healthier alternative for a "dippable snack" you could serve at a SB party?	Veggie Platter, So Carrots, Celery, Mushrooms and Other veggies
What PERCENT of Americans order takeout on Super Bowl Sunday?	20%
60% of takeout orders on SB Sunday are for pizza. What is the third most popular pizza topping in America? What would you guess the 2 most popular toppings are?	Pepperoni 2 most popular are Pepperoni and ew Pineapple.
On average, it takes 2 ½ avocados to make 1 lb. of guacamole. It is estimated that Americans consume 8 million pounds of guacamole on SB Sunday. How many avocados does it take to make that much guacamole?! From which country are most of those avocados imported?	3,200,000 Million avocados are used Mexico delivers the most with above 100 Thousand Divide the following two articles between your group members. Complete the chart and share your summary with your group members.

https://www.foodsafety.gov/blog/your-winning-game-plan-super-bowl-sunday-food-and-leftovers https://www.foodsafety.gov/blog/cold-1-hot-2-dont-let-bacteria-score-touchdown-super-bowl-sunday

Which article did you read?	Article 1
List three things you learned from the article.	1. Almost 99 percent of humans don't wash their hands correctly 2. Takes only 2 hours for food to go bad if its not stored correctly/Warm room 3. Make sure your poultry it cooked through (165 Degrees)
What is one thing you learned from someone at your table who read the other article?	The Article 2, states that you should cook fish/seafood to 145 Degrees.

Use this article to answer the following questions about current food prices that may impact Super Bowl party budgets.

Prices for chicken wings have increased by 25% since last year. This is a nearly 60% increase from 2020.	25% , 60%
Which item on the menu presented in the article did not change in price since last year?	Soda remains the same
What does the article estimate would be the cost of feeding 10 people at a Super Bowl party this year? What % increase is	$ 167 ; 7.2%

this from last year?
Discuss how the cost of assembling a vegetable tray for a party has changed since last year.	Their has been minor price changes but nothing to flashy
What tips does the article suggest for handling inflation in our budget?	1. Switch to generic brands 2. Be smart with your money

Learn more about Super Bowl Team Inspired Menu Items here: Seattle vs. New England

Describe a Seattle-style hot dog.	a hot dog served in a toasted bun, defined by a generous smear of cream cheese and topped with a large amount of grilled onions, often with other additions like jalapeños, sauerkraut, or mustard.
Seattle is known for coffee - name the popular coffee shop chain that is headquartered in Seattle.	Starbucks
Discuss how Asian-influence is commonly seen in popular Seattle cuisine.	Asian influence is a foundational element of popular Seattle cuisine, deeply integrated into the city's culinary identity through a mix of historic immigrant contributions and a modern focus on Pacific Rim ingredients.
Common menu items in Seattle include Oysters, Salmon, Clam Chowder, and Lobster. What do these dishes have in	Oysters, salmon, clam chowder, and lobster are staples in Seattle due to their commonality as fresh, locally sourced common and why are they so popular in Seattle?	Pacific Northwest seafood, highlighting the region's rich maritime, Native American, and Scandinavian culinary heritage.

What is a “dutch baby” and in which Superbowl city did it originate?	A "dutch baby" is a large, oven-baked pancake—often described as a cross between a popover, a Yorkshire pudding, and a crepe—that puffs up significantly in a hot skillet and collapses shortly after being removed from the oven. Came from Manca’s Cafe in Seatle
New England is known for lobster and especially their lobster rolls. Explain the difference between a Maine-Style Lobster Roll and a Connecticut-Style Lobster Roll.	The primary difference between a Maine-style and Connecticut-style lobster roll is the dressing and temperature: Maine rolls feature cold, mayonnaise-dressed lobster salad, while Connecticut rolls feature warm, butter-drizzled lobster.
The official dessert of Massachusetts is the Boston Cream Pie. Why is the name of this dish misleading?	The Boston cream pie is a misleadingly named dish because it is actually a cake, not a pie.
What is Clam Chowder and how is it different from chowder recipes popular in other areas of the country?	Clam chowder is a thick, hearty, and typically creamy American soup featuring clams, potatoes, onions, and salt pork or bacon, originating in 18th-century New England.
How does Boston Brown Bread differ from traditionally baked breads and what other famous New England dish is it commonly cooked and served with?	Boston brown bread is a dense, moist, and slightly sweet quick bread traditionally steamed in a cylindrical can (often a coffee or bean can) rather than baked in an oven, using a mix of rye, cornmeal, and graham flour, sweetened with molasses. It is almost exclusively served alongside New England baked beans.
How is maple syrup produced and which New England state is most well	Maple syrup is produced by tapping sugar maple trees in early spring to known for its production?	collect sap, which is then boiled down in an evaporator, requiring roughly 40 gallons of sap to create one gallon of syrup. Vermont is the New England state most renowned for its production, yielding over half of the entire U.S. supply.

If the Pittsburgh Steelers were playing in the Super Bowl, what are 2 foods that you think would be highlighted?	1. Chicken Wings 2. Burgers And Fries
Let's have some fun…take a look at this list of foods that represent each NFL team. If you were to choose a favorite team strictly based on their food pairing, which team would it be? What is the food association? https://spoonuniversity.com/lifestyle/nfl-foods-that-represent-every-team	I'm a San Francisco 49ers fan. Sadly, they serve sushi which I don't really like. But if I were to choose the team's meal would be the Buffalo Bills. I love buffalo wings

Typical Super Bowl food isn't known for being healthy, but you can make healthier choices! Find a recipe for baked chicken wings and post it below. Baking is a healthier cooking method than frying!

STEPS:
1. Preheat Oven To 425 Degrees
2. Dry Chicken Wings In A Paper Towel
3. In A Small Bowl, Combine Your Seasonings And Season To Your Liking
4. Season The Chicken Wings And Place Them On A Baking Sheet
5. Cook It For 45-60 Minutes And Turn It Every 60 Minutes
6. Then After There Darkened And Crispy Toss Them Around In Your Favorite Sauce Or Dip Them In Ranch

https://natashaskitchen.com/baked-chicken-wings/

Design or find a trivia question for each category in the chart below. Include the answer.

Category	Trivia Question	Answer
Super Bowl (general)	How Long has The Super Bowl Been Going On	NEARLY 60 Years

Super Bowl (general)	What's The Largest Crowd For The Superbowl	Over 103,000 people
Seattle Seahawks	How Many Superbowls Have The Seahawks Won?	Only 1
New England Patriots	How Many Superbowls Has The Patriots Won?	They Won A Whopping 6 Superbowls